LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS

This decade will soon end.

Sunday and Monday were warm spring days.

The season has arrived to talk about zero.

Tax paying time brings an unusual number to town.

Our patrons from the country appreciate the stone drive-ways.

The Sons of Veterans should be nicely patronized Saturday evening.

The earnings of the opera house this season will show a decided increase.

Large and elegant stocks of Christmas presents can be seen at a number of counters.

A change in time took place on the W & L. E. Ry. Nov. 7, see corrected time table on first page.

Marshal Williams reports very few knights of the road to apply for lodgings in the cooler.

The pupils in the schools were hard at work last week on the first examination for the fall term.

The enterprising dry goods firm of Laundon Windecker & Co. favor our readers with a supplement to the Enterprise.

One and one-third fare for the round trip over the Bee Line Dec. 24, good to return until Jan. 3. Special notice next issue.

Postmaster Bush and his deputies have about all the mail matter they care to handle at present. This is the month for presents.

The council should devise some plan to place a flag staff upon the city hall. As it now is there is no place to suspend the national colors on public occasions.

All should make it a point to attend the next lecture; the speaker comes well recommended and no fears need be entertained but a rich literary treat is in store for all who attend.

The board of managers at the Penitentiary has decided that Mrs. Garrett must now surrender her child, which is eighteen months old, to any one bearing authority from its father, A. D. Garrett.

Mrs. Lucinda Avery, aged eighty-four called at this office to renew her subscription Tuesday morning. She appeared as active as many at three score and ten. Mrs. Avery is probably the oldest patron on our list.

The reception given Rev. S. D. Gamble and family at the church parlors was largely attended. They left Friday forenoon over the W. & L. E. Ry., for their new field of labor, leaving a host of friends in the Cheese City.

Winter is at hand and very few idle laboring men can be seen on the street which is quite a change from one year ago. The new buildings erected and the increased manufacturing interests is furnishing employment for the surplus help.

In the bill of complaint filed against Speaker-elect Lamson, irregularities are charged as taking place in election proceedings in Wellington, Lorain county. Will the informant please arise and explain through The Enterprise what they were.

Quite a valuable pocket-book was found near the opera house one morning last week. The contents consisted of two quids of chewing gum. The owner can have the whole outfit by calling at this office. A little extra precaution will have to be taken on our part to see that the contents are properly identified.

A benefit for the Sons of Veterans will be given at the opera house, Saturday afternoon and evening, Dec. 14, under the direction of Mr. Linc Kibbey will present the sparkling comedy "Little Fanny". The cast of characters assigned are, Miss Vic. Wilcox, Miss Minnie Forbes, Miss Bertha Hawk, Mr. Frank Biggs, Mr. Harry Christie, Mr. Henry Stevick, Mr. Walter Hall, Mr. Grant Watts, Mr. Linc Kibbey.

Saturday evening we took a short ride over the W. & L. E. Ry. Not having been over that part of the line for some time, a mention of the progress of the road and the towns on the line will not be out of place. The road bed has been much improved, the coaches and rolling stock are in a first class condition, and their train employees appeared to be on the alert to give every assistance to passengers that was possible. On account of the large stone interests at Glarksfield the town is rapidly building up with nice, clean, commodious residences.

An elegant brick structure is being erected at Norwalk for a passenger depot. All along the line the marks of progress were apparent and although the road has scarcely been in operation seven years it is now one of the best local passenger lines in the country.

PERSONALS.

Dr. J. W. Houghton is now on duty again at his store. The Doctor has been ailing since July last, and his many friends will be glad to learn of his recovery.

One personal mention was omitted last week which should have been inserted. Hon. M. T. Herrick, an honored citizen of Cleveland, spent Sunday, Dec. 1st, with his father, Mr. T. R. Herrick of this place.

E. L. Benedict spent the week past in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Smith spent Sunday in Clyde.

N. Huckins, of Oberlin, occasionally visits old friends here.

Mr. Fred Husted of Norwalk spent Sunday with friends in Wellington.

William and Miss Mabel Holbrook attended the twentieth anniversary of Dr. and Mrs. Holbrook at Plymouth, Saturday.

R. L. French has been in New York and Chicago the past two weeks on a business trip.

Wellington Council O. C. F.

The annual election of officers in Wellington Council No. 63, Order of Chosen Friends, Friday evening, Dec. 6, 1889, resulted as follows: Councilor, F. H. Phelps; Vice-Councilor, Mrs. Eva Fisher; Sec'y, M. W. Lang; Treasurer, C. E. Sutcliffe; Prelate, W. E. Peirce; Marshal, A. G. Fisher; Warden, Mrs. T. Metzger; Guard, Mrs. A. G. Fisher; Sentry, C. N. Christie; Trustees, C. Wadsworth, Mrs. A. Gardner, Mrs. R. N. Goodwin; Representative to Grand Council, R. N. Goodwin; Alternate Representative to Grand Council, M. W. Lang; Installing Deputy, Mrs. C. Willard. Wellington Council was organized May 28, 1886, and has steadily grown ever since. This order has an insurance feature which should command the attention of all insurable persons. It is as good as the best, and as cheap as the cheapest. It pays disability claims as well as death claims. It has also a Sick Benefit League connected with it which pays a sick or disabled member from $3 to $15 per week, and if a member becomes permanently disabled, is entitled to a large part of his, or her, beneficiary certificate.

The Lecture Course.

The third lecture of the Wellington lecture course will be given next Friday evening in the Congregational church by Prof. John G. Woolley of Minneapolis. Mr. Woolley is one of the leading platform orators at the West. He is spoken of by many as another John B. Gough. He is endorsed by many of national reputation, among them D. L. Moody, Dr. Deems, of New York, and President Fairchild, of Oberlin, who says, "It was the most impressive lecture I ever heard." He is now engaged to travel with Mr. Moody in his work. Let everybody come and hear this eloquent man. General admission 35 cents. Season tickets for the remainder of the course will be sold for one dollar. This will include the grand popular concert by the Boston Ideal Banjo, Mandolin, and Guitar Club, and the lecture by Mrs. Olof Krar, the native Equianian, and that of John DeWitt Miller on "The Uses of Ugliness." Tickets on sale at J. W. Houghton's store.

A man who has practiced medicine for 40 years, ought to know salt from sugar; read what he says:

TOLEDO, O., Jan. 10, 1887.
Messrs. F. J. Cheney & Co.—Gentlemen:—I have been in the general practice of medicine for most 40 years, and would say that in all my practice and experience have never seen a preparation that I could prescribe with as much confidence of success as I can Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by you. Have prescribed it a great many times and its effect is wonderful, and would say in conclusion that I have yet to find a case of Catarrh that it would not cure, if they would take it according to directions.

Yours Truly,

L. L. GORACCHI, M. D.
Office, 215 Summit St.

We will give $100 for any case of Catarrh that can not be cured with Hall's Catarrh Cure. Taken internally.

The W. C. T. U. Convention at La Grange.

Editor of Enterprise:

We are sure that some of your patrons would be glad to know about the County Convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, held last week in the Methodist church at La Grange. At the hour of opening of the morning session on Wednesday an inspiring number of delegates from the local unions were in their seats.

The devotional exercises led by Mrs. S. Stroup, President of the La Grange Union, brought all present together before God in earnest supplications for His guidance in all the deliberations of the body, and His blessings upon the result. Lorain Elyria, Oberlin and Wellington were well represented. Reports of officers and Unions were encouraging. The work of distributing "The Scientific Temperance Instruction Bulletin" is being vigorously pushed; The canvass for "The Union Signal" and "The Ohio Messenger" is in the hands of intelligent, earnest women who are glad to do a kindness to a sister by persuading her to subscribe for these papers. Every family in the Nation would be the richer mentally and spiritually for reading the Union Signal, and no officer in any union in Ohio can well do without "The Messenger." The President urged upon all Unions, earnest, vigilant work in regular meetings; there was something for every individual to do, since our organization of forty distinct departments of work was broad enough to offer a field for every talent consecrated to the work of uplifting the race. She spoke of the department of "The White Cross and Shield" as especially appealing to noble and true women to lend their aid to the advancement of cleanliness, purity and holiness, since there was no community even in Christian America but was called upon to say in sadness "One more unfortunate gone to her death."

The subject of "Sweet cider" after being brought before the body in a paper by Mrs. Root of Lorain, was freely and profitably discussed. It was a significant fact, that in towns where the sale of alcoholics as a beverage is prohibited, cider saloons had been opened. One was surprised to find so many windows displaying the notice "Sweet Cider" sold here. Some of the proprietors were very generously furnishing free luncheons with it. The papers read were full of strong, earnest thoughts helpful alike to those who prepared them and to those who heard them. That on "How to work and not wear out," was especially valuable, prepared by our own townsman, Dr. Harriet E. Warren. It contained that which is taken as a preventive would deprive the genial Doctor of some of her patients. In addition to these, with Mrs. Cragin, of La Grange, to welcome, and Mrs. Houghton of Wellington, to respond, "The Father and His Daughters," by Mrs. King, (the aged and cultured mother of Prof. King of Oberlin.) Juvenile work, by Mrs. Wimer of Berea; "The Mother and Her Boys," by Mrs. Gardner, of Wellington; "Narcotics," by Mrs. Brush, of Elyria, what wonder it was said by those who often attend such meetings: "The literary programme" was much above the average. The music furnished by the LaGrange choir and by our own young people, Bertha Hawk, Grace Artz and Arthur Eglin, was highly appreciated and added much to the interest of the occasion. The church choir and Mrs. Wilcox, of Cleveland, added to the music of the evening. LaGrange citizens opened their homes for the comfort of delegates and visitors. A crowded house greeted the contestants at 7:00 in the evening and gave delighted audience to each speaker. Don Cushion of Wellington, who delivered a selection from an address of Gen. Clinton B. Fisk's entitled "The Infamous Liquor Traffic," was awarded the medal. He was one of six contestants, all of whom did well. A competent judge said at the close of the exercises, "I don't think Gen. Fisk ever got more out of that part of his speech than Master Cushion did tonight."

MEDINA.

Christmas will soon be here, and notwithstanding people made a solemn vow after the holidays were past last year that they would never, no never again deplete their pocketbooks by buying a lot of useless presents, yet they came up to the ranks smilingly and have the store keepers put away mysterious packages to be delivered to Santa Claus. Speaking of Christmas gifts, one can scarcely miss finding an abundant supply at all of the business places in Medina which deal in that line of goods. Mrs. Clara Bailey who has been bedridden for the past six years died at her home in this place on Thursday last week and was buried Monday forenoon, Rev. B. J. Hoadley conducting the services. The total enrollment of the public schools thus far for the year has been 447. During November the number of pupils was 405, the per cent. of attendance 96, cases of tardiness 22, and three cases of corporal punishment. S. Cutter, who was recently removed from Lodi to his cousin's H. Cutter, in Granger died at the latter place this week of consumption. He was a veteran soldier and had been on the list of the Soldiers' Relief Commission for some time. By request Rev. B. J. Hoadley will begin a series of sermons next Sunday evening at the Methodist Episcopal church on "The Holy Spirit." From a Sabatka, Kansas, paper of a recent date, which has been sent us, we notice the marriage of Mrs. Clara Green and Mr. Joseph Brown, a well-to-do citizen of Sabatka. The bride was a resident of Medina all her life until the past year, when she went west. J. R. Morrell has been appointed postmaster at Chatham in place of C. H. Packard, resigned. The borers of the Wadsworth gas well struck a bed of solid carbon salt 90 feet thick. The depth we believe, is over 2500 feet.—Medina Gazette.

Church Notes and Announcements

The Salvation Army holds public meetings every night in the week excepting Monday and Tuesday, and on next Sabbath morning commencing at seven o'clock, knee drill (or one hour at the cross). Consecration meeting at eleven, and a special meeting at three o'clock, called a mothers' prayer meeting" in which all mothers who feel interested in the welfare of their children's souls should attend this meeting. Every body is cordially invited.

Hard at Work.

Nearly one hundred eminent persons are now engaged in preparing valuable and important contributions to THE YOUTH'S COMPANION for 1890.

Mr. Gladstone is getting together his reminiscences of the Historian; Justin McCarthy is writing all his personal recollections of great Prime Ministers; Sir Morell Mackenzie is thinking of what he shall say to THE COMPANION readers on the training of their voices in youth; Captain Kennedy is recalling the exciting episodes of his five hundred trips across the Atlantic, and making notes for his articles; P. T. Barnum is preparing the account of how he secured his White Elephant; General Wolsey is arranging to tell the boys how they can endure hardships; Carroll D. Wright is securing statistics about the boy and girl laborers of America, what they do and what they earn; Hon. James G. Blaine is writing a paper for our young politicians; popular authors are at work on serial stories; the Presidents of three leading American colleges will give advice to boys on their future; Tyndall and Shaler are to talk about the wonders of nature; Marion Harland promises to entertain the girls, while Lieutenant Schwatka will take the boys in imagination to the loneliest place in the United States.

There are hundreds of pleasures in store for THE YOUTH'S COMPANION readers of 1890. Everyone is hard at work, as you see. $1.75 will admit you to 52 weeks of these entertainments. Send for Full Prospectus for 1890 to THE YOUTH'S COMPANION, Boston, Mass.

I suffered with pain in my side and back for four weeks, the pain being so severe as to keep me in bed, unable to move. I tried Salvation Oil and it completely cured me and I am now well and free from all pain. CH. ROBERT LEDLISH, 49 52 Durst Alley, Balto, Md.

CITY BUYERS.

When making up their Cleveland shopping list, should not fail to note a call at the Ball Jewelry Store. This establishment has made unusual preparation for the holidays. Their special features are fine diamonds and watches, and intending purchasers in these particular lines will do well to call upon Mr. Ball, who is an expert in precious stones, and he always takes great pleasure in showing his stock of choice gems. The establishment also deals largely in sterling silver and the better qualities of plated silverware and other articles of service in the home circle, as well as many rich things suitable for wedding gifts and presentation occasions. Their location is corner Superior and Seneca streets. Convenient to all street car lines and railroad stations.

WEST MAIN, NOV. 13, 1889.

R. N. Goodwin Esq: Dear Sir—I have not seen a granite monument as yet that has been up twenty years but what is more or less defaced. (51)
